REGISTER for the Qgiv auction

On your computer or your phone

You will need to enter your credit card information in the following steps in order to bid on works, but it will not be charged unless you win, and/or you made an optional donation in the registration process.

1. Visit secure.qgiv.com/event/freshperspectives/register/ (or click on the Register tab at the top if you're on another page of the auction).
2. Leave the ticket settings as they are (you only need one free "ticket" per household for bidding).
3. Continue to contact information.
4. Hit Complete Registration.
5. See next page – we recommend getting set up to bid right away by entering your payment info, and downloading the Givi app if you plan to bid on your phone – so you won't need to find the information later.

Need assistance with registration or bidding? Join us at the Open House on Friday or Bites & Bids on Saturday (best options). Or if you cannot make it to an event: call Jessi at 407-539-2181 x260, by Friday at 12:00pm. She can enter your contact & credit card information for you, and set a bid for you or "buy it now".

PREPARING TO BID (payment)

After you register, you'll need to enter your payment information in order to bid

When you register, Qgiv will email you a link that will give you the option to:

- 1) go to the Apple/Android app store to download the Qgiv app (bid from your phone)
- or 2) click on "Enter your ticket code to start bidding online now" to bid without downloading the app (bid from your computer)

At this time, it will confirm your contact information, and ask you to enter your credit card information. (Don't click "Maybe Later" – it will take you back to the screen below.) The card will not be charged unless you win, and/or you made an optional donation in the registration process.

Notes: If you already entered a ticket code on your phone, you will need to log in using your email address if using your computer too. (It will tell you this ticket code has already been claimed if you use it for both devices.)

If you participated in the auction last year, it may already have your credit card on file, and it can be changed by clicking on Payment Methods in the top tabs when you are logged in. (Or Payment Settings on your phone – click on the 3 horizontal bars at the bottom.)

Your ticket code should already be filled in when you click, but you can find it here in the email from Qgiv if you need it.

VIEWING AUCTION ITEMS

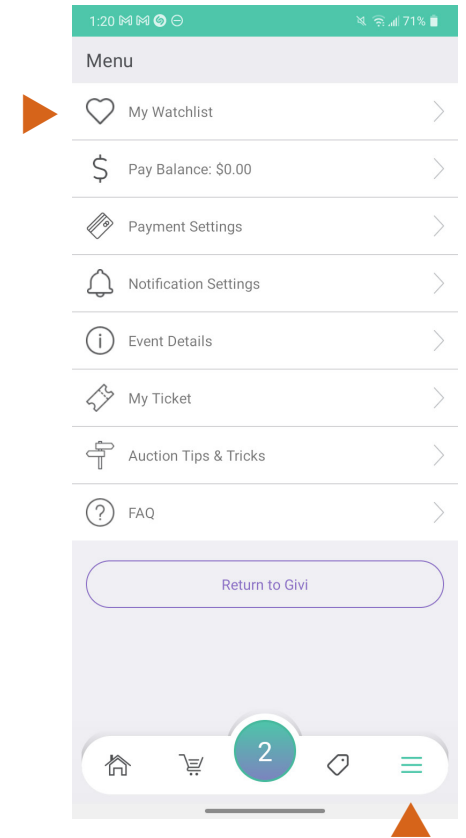

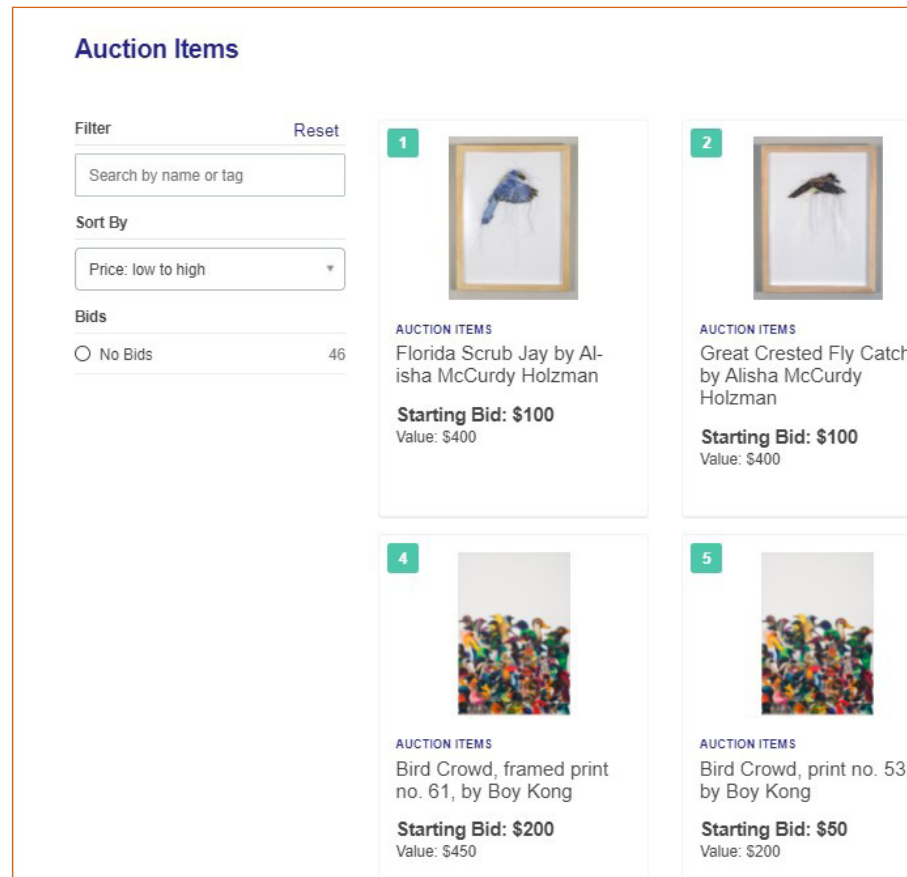

Visit <https://secure.qgiv.com/event/freshperspectives/items/>
(or click on the Items tab at the top of the page from other pages)

Note: Items will say “Bidding Hasn’t Started” until auction opens July 15 at noon.

From your phone:

From your computer:

Tip: If you're using the Givi app on your phone, you can Click the heart next to an artwork you like, and it will be added to your Watchlist, which is accessed here, so you can check this when the auction opens!

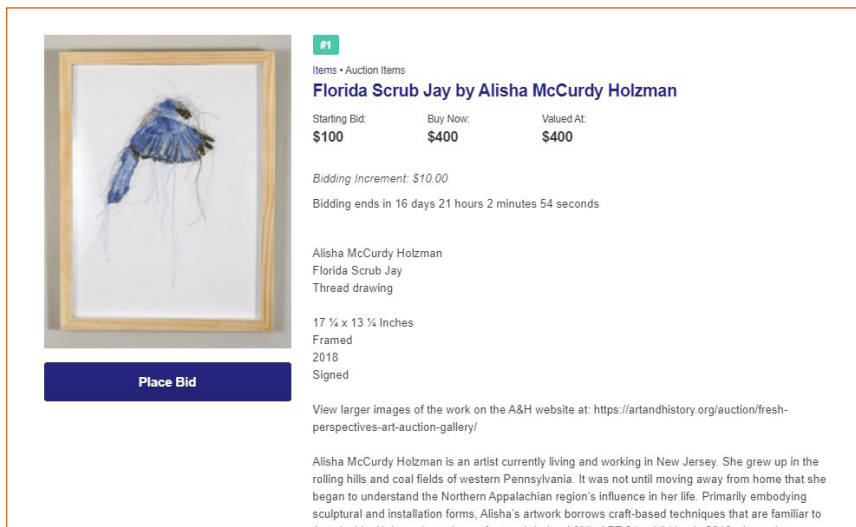

BIDDING

Visit <https://secure.qgiv.com/event/freshperspectives/items/>
(or click on the Items tab at the top of the page from other Fresh Perspectives auction pages)

1. Click Place Bid
2. Choose Bid or Buy It Now

That's it! If you win the item, your card will be charged, and you'll receive an email from Givi. Then A&H staff will follow up with an email to confirm pickup of your item(s).

Don't forget to check again before July 17 at 5:00pm to see if you've been outbid!

Alisha McCurdy Holzman is an artist currently living and working in New Jersey. She grew up in the rolling hills and coal fields of western Pennsylvania. It was not until moving away from home that she began to understand the Northern Appalachian region's influence in her life. Primarily embodying sculptural and installation forms, Alisha's artwork borrows craft-based techniques that are familiar to Appalachia. Holzman's work was featured during A&H's ART 31 exhibition in 2018, where she
